

INTERNATIONAL DISPUTE RESOLUTION MOOT COMPETITION IDR 2016

University College Lahore (UCL) invites your law school to participate in the International Dispute Resolution Moot Competition (idr 2016). This is an opportunity for your university to participate in and win this innovative competition.

UCL, a premier institute of Pakistan for legal studies, has always been a forerunner when it comes to education of law. Not only through its academic excellence but also through different extra-curricular and co-curricular platforms, UCL has opened different avenues for students that help them expand their horizons.

The Patron of the Competition is Barrister Umar Mahmood without whose support this competition would not have been possible. He is a practicing lawyer and a former lecturer of Human Rights Law at UCL. He is also the Coach of the University College Association of Mooters (UCAM).

The International Dispute Resolution Moot competition is open to teams with a minimum of three students and a maximum of six students. It is designed to combine both arbitration and mediation and will provide students with an opportunity to act as a mediator/arbitrator, attorney and client. A timeline for the competition has been prepared and has been posted on the competition website along with the Rules of the Competition and information on the structure of the competition. Awards will be presented in the following categories:

Runner-up Team Memoranda
Best Memoranda
Best Representation Plan
Best Oralist (Arbitration proceedings) in General Rounds
Best Mediator
Encouragement Award
Best Oralist (Arbitration proceedings) in Grand Finale
Runner-up Team in Final
Winning Team in Final

The IDR 2016 is open to any law student (A-Level, Undergraduate or Postgraduate) who has not been admitted to practice. Details of the competition, together with the registration form, can be found at: <http://www.ucl.edu.pk/idr.html> and www.facebook.com/idrucl

For any enquiries and information about the Moot, submission of memorandum representational plan, etc. please email to ucl.ucam@gmail.com
Sample moot videos of Arbitration and Mediation have been uploaded so that you can gain an idea about the format of the proceedings.
Enquiries about registration should be forwarded to the Director Registrations of the Moot, Miss Fatima Latif at ucl.ucam@gmail.com

The event is scheduled to take place on the 19th of February 2016 and will end on the 21st of February 2016. The deadline for Memoranda submission is 12th February 2016 and you will receive opponent team memoranda on the 15th February 2016. The deadline for Representation Plan submission is 10th February 2016. The teams will have to submit Memoranda and Representation Plan of both, Complainants and Respondents. Registration deadline for the competition is 28th January 2016.

Hoping that your team will participate and compete to win, I very much look forward to welcoming your team for the International Dispute Resolution Moot Competition (idr 2016).
